

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

IN RE:

DEMETRIUS BERTRAND DICKERSON
SR,

Debtors.

Bankruptcy No. 12-11284

Chapter 7

DEBTOR'S EX PARTE MOTION TO REOPEN CASE

COMES NOW Demetrius Bertrand Dickerson Sr, the Chapter 7 Debtor, by and through his attorney, Christina L Henry and Henry & DeGraaff P.S., moves the court for an EX PARTE Order reopening the Debtor's case.

Local Rule 5010-1(b) states that a Trustee or Debtor may move to reopen the case ex parte provided no substantive relief is sought ex parte. The chapter 7 trustee previously entered a report of no distribution, and no claims bar date was set. The Debtor is seeking to reopen his case for the purpose of filing a violation of the discharge motion against Merchants Credit Corporation. The motion for violation of the bankruptcy discharge injunction is being separately noted for hearing and served on the party in interest. No trustee need be appointed as there are still no assets to administer.
